

QUEBEC ANGLOPHONE
HERITAGE NETWORK
QAHN

RÉSEAU DU PATRIMOINE
ANGLOPHONE DU QUÉBEC
RPAQ

Inspiring Heritage Engagement, Renewal and Identity Together

Are your students and colleagues up for a challenge?

Does your school seek stronger ties to the community?

Do you wish you had more support for special projects?

Here's an opportunity to build lasting links with volunteers while helping students learn about the places where they live

Eligible local projects could receive up to $2,000

Plus

Participating students could earn a chance to showcase their talents at the

Young Leaders Heritage Fair

May 12, 2012

Champlain College, St. Lambert

About Us

The Quebec Anglophone Heritage Network (QAHN) is a member-based service organisation representing more than 50 volunteer historical societies, community museums and heritage conservation groups around Quebec.

InHerit

The InHerit program aims to strengthen links among schools and local museums, historical societies and other volunteer organisations by helping youth contribute to local history and heritage projects that enrich classroom learning.

Apply now

- Participating schools enable students to contribute to their communities
- Outstanding projects will be featured in Quebec Heritage News magazine and entered in the 2012 Young Leaders Heritage Awards competition.

For details visit www.qahn.org or call toll-free 1-877-964-0409