

Acknowledgements

The writers of this project would like to thank Jim Sullivan (formerly of Anglophone Services), Director of Educational Services, New Frontiers School Board and Abigail Anderson of Direction générale de la formation des jeunes, Ministère de l'Éducation, du Loisir et du Sport Québec, for their generous financial support. Without grants from these departments, this project would not have been possible.

All the writers are very grateful to their administrators who encouraged this collaboration, in spite of the difficulties of having to find substitute teachers in order for them to work on this project. They would also like to express their appreciation to their students and to the parents of their students for allowing them to share their learning.

Thanks is also due to the directors of Riverside School Board for encouraging and supporting the application for and the administration of the professional development grants that supported this and other projects.

Sylvia Ciotola of Riverside School Board deserves special thanks for keeping track of this grant and for her endless good humour.

Audrey Collinson's cheerful assistance, support, and numerous pots of coffee at the Riverside Teachers' Resource Centre were very much appreciated.

Stephanie Vucko very generously took time out of her busy schedule to work on the technical editing and layout.

Thomas Stenzel created a conference site for the group and consistent technical assistance throughout project. Andrew Hynes' emotional and technical support in the final stages of the project ensured its completion.
