

Learning Toolkit Institute- October 30, 2009

The Centre for the Study of Learning and Performance (CSLP) and LEARN would like to invite English Language Arts and Special Education consultants, as well as Resource teachers to attend a one-day 2009 Learning Toolkit Institute. Participants will be given the opportunity to become trainers of the Learning Toolkit, our powerful and evidence-based software. This training session will focus on the early literacy tool, ABRACADABRA. Level 1 of ePEARL will also be discussed briefly. A separate one-day session focusing on ePEARL will be scheduled later in the winter.

Institute participants will receive:

- Training binder + materials
- Complimentary continental breakfast and lunch

To qualify for this training participants need to:

- Have the Learning Toolkit installed on their school board server
- Be willing to support use of the Learning Toolkit in their schools, especially those in research schools
- Provide at least three names of future users of the Learning Toolkit they are willing to train
- Have the support of their supervisor in order to cover the expenses related to attending the institute (release, participation and travel)

Go to the following link to find the October 2009 Learning Toolkit Institute enrollment form:

<http://doe.concordia.ca/cslp/ICT-LTK.php>. Please complete and submit it. Spaces available for the Institute are limited and the deadline for enrolment is October 23. We will select applications that meet the eligibility criteria on a first come, first serve basis.

We look forward to seeing you there!
