Legal Careers	Secondary Cycle Two (SEC III, IV, V)	Personal Orientation Project (POP), Exploration of Vocational Training (Explo)	https://www.educationjuridique.ca/en/doityourself/teachingguides/legal-careers/ The first activity (Who Am I?) introduces students to a variety of jobs that involve the law. Students then use clues to identify different careers. The activity is available in PowerPoint format. The second activity gives students a more in-depth look at these careers. Working in teams, they hunt for answers to fill in the blanks for a detailed picture of each career.
Legal Careers in the Indigenous Context	Secondary Cycle Two (Sec III, IV, V)	Personal Orientation Project (POP), Exploration of Vocational Training (Explo), Work-Oriented Training Path (WOTP)	https://www.educationjuridique.ca/en/doityourself/teachingguides/legal-careers-in-the-indigenous-context/ In this activity, students learn about the variety of law-related jobs. It was designed with the realities of Indigenous people in mind and has been reviewed by Indigenous professionals. Accompanying the activity are testimonials from positive Indigenous role models.
Criminal Trials: Actors and Steps	Secondary Cycle Two (Sec III, IV, V)	Ethics and Religious Culture, Personal Orientation Program (POP), Exploration of Vocational Training (Explo)	https://www.educationjuridique.ca/en/doityourself/teachingguides/criminal-trials-actors-and-steps/ This activity prompts students to reflect on invasions of their privacy. Using two decisions of the Supreme Court of Canada about school searches, students form opinions and discuss issues involved in searches at school. Students will acquire basic knowledge of their rights regarding searches of their personal belongings in a school setting. They will also learn about the Supreme Court of Canada. At the end of this lesson, students should be able to explain the basic principles and guidelines surrounding searches in school, why protection from invasions of their privacy is important, and how the Supreme Court of Canada makes decisions. Students will acquire English vocabulary surrounding searches and courts and will be able to use this vocabulary during the tasks.
